What does it mean to be a Role Model? & A look to the future

ROLE MODELS

Leah Ludwig - President

The Student Action Leadership Team has an important role in the school community: encouraging a sense of community within the student body and providing a good example to their peers. Each member, along with their high school peers, is responsible for providing a good example of leadership, stewardship, and Christian behavior. It is important that younger students see the older students as good examples and approachable peers, so allowing a sense of community within the student body to flourish. It is SALT's goal to maintain and encourage Tyndale Christian School's close-knit community, and push others to do the same.
